

I support RM-10352 and urge it's implementation. RM-10352 provides a clear delineation of narrow and wide modes on the 160 meter band which would reduce conflicts between operators using dissimilar modes in the portion of the band below 1840 MHz. This would also fall in line with other bands through UHF where there is a defined narrow mode only segment.